

Nick Fazio Introduces New BEER INFUSED PIZZA!

Beer Infused Pizza Comes to Oshawa

It's well known that beer and pizza go hand in hand, and now you can enjoy this delicious combination in one bite. Nick Fazio, owner of La Pizza & Pasta has just perfected his beer-infused pizza dough.

Nick worked with local breweries, including 5 Paddles Brewing Co. and Brock Street Brewery to create the perfect combination of beer and pizza. He uses the beer, hops, barley and a secret ingredient to create his new crusts. This creates not only a new taste profile, but also adds protein, fibre and iron to the pizza.

Nick worked with the breweries to find the perfect pairings between their beers and his pizzas. For example, 5 Paddle Brewing Co.'s Italian Backyard with its basil flavouring matches very well with La Pizza & Pasta's Margherita pizza. If you are ordering the Meat Lovers pizza, make sure you have some Irish Red from Brock Street Brewery to wash it down with.

To introduce his new pizza crust to the region, Nick hired cartoonist Brian Fray to create cartoons for him. Soon, you will see his cartoons in the pages of Oshawa This Week. One features a police officer who has pulled over a vehicle, with the driver protesting that he "only had one slice!"

You will have the opportunity to create your own cartoon about La Pizza & Pasta's new beer-infused crust. Watch the pages of Oshawa This Week for his cartoons and for information on the cartoon contest, including how to enter.

La Pizza & Pasta has been serving up pizza and pasta with passion since 1975. Nick uses only the best, freshest ingredients to make his pizzas and pastas, and all of their sauces are homemade. Ask for your next pizza to be made with the beer-infused crust!

Nick's homemade family recipes have been passed down through generations and are truly "old authentic Italian." La Pizza & Pasta's menu features pizzas with traditional and gourmet toppings; a variety of speciality pasta entrees; meats; dinners and crispy salads; and their immensely popular homemade tiramisù.

The restaurant also offers a great selection of Take N' Bake items that you can just pop in the oven and enjoy, including lasagna, soup, pasta, meatballs, desserts, salad dressings and more.

La Pizza & Pasta is located at 30 Taunton Road East (just east of Simcoe, on the north side). Takeout and delivery are available.
